

Missional Living Questionnaire

1. Do you know the story of the particular community or culture that you are called to?
2. If you know the story, what are the barriers to the gospel? List 3 Barriers to the Gospel.
3. What are some tangible ways you would demonstrate the gospel to your community? What is broken around your community that you would address? List 3 tangible ways to demonstrate the gospel in your community.
4. In your community, do you know the personal life stories of any unbelievers? What are some ways you can get to know the personal stories of unbelievers around you?
5. What are the forms of celebration that unbelievers in your culture engage in?
6. How are you leading (or how could you lead) the believers in your community to either create celebrations that un-believers can engage in or join un-believers in their celebrations?
7. What "persons of peace", organizations, or other ministries exist to bless the community? Do any of those resonate with you? Have you participated in their ministry efforts, or do you pray for their work regularly? If so, who is it? If not, how can you find one?
8. If the answer to #7 is yes, is there already an organization or group of believers working together toward that mission on a regular basis? And if so, how?
9. Do you know the stories of the people serving in those ministries, or the story of their work amongst the people they're reaching? How can you get to know their stories better?
10. How often does your group gather together to eat meals, celebrate and focus on a mission in their community together? What does this look like?
11. What form of serving do you think would best communicate the gospel to the community you live in?
12. Are you able to clearly articulate the Story of God (the gospel narrative)? How can you begin to tell The Story of God in a form that makes sense to your culture? List some ways to start.
13. Are the believers in your Small Group equipped to share the gospel by demonstrating and declaring it in culturally appropriate ways in their community? What are some ways you can equip them?
14. Would you say that the unbelievers in your community would grieve the loss of your church if you were to "close the doors" and the believers left the community? What would it look like to be the Church in such a way that the community would grieve if you all left?
